G. Hygiene and Dress

Good grooming, cleanliness and appropriate dress are considered important for group learning and may have an impact on others. Individuals should be free of excessive body odor, have clean clothes and groomed hair. The following are guidelines to follow when selecting clothing for the day:

- Clothes should be loose-fitting so as not to restrict movement or reveal undergarment lines.
- Shorts should be longer than mid-thigh.
- Sleeveless shirts are allowed, but NO tank or muscle shirts.
- T-shirts may be worn, but logos must be appropriate.
- Clothes should be appropriate for the weather and work schedule, as well as the individual's age.

H. Transportation

The Mental Health Centers of Western Illinois has a van service which provides pickup and delivery for all individuals attending the Day Program. You are expected to be ready for pickup each morning and notify your driver when you are not riding. The van drivers will assist passengers as needed. Assistance could include help with boarding or exiting the vehicle, help entering or exiting the home, and the carrying of belongings. Eating or drinking on the van is at the discretion of the driver depending on the situation. You must wear your seat belt while riding in agency vehicles. The driver can assist you if you need help with your seat belt. Please keep personal belongings to a minimum to assure safe passage on and off of the vehicles and to keep aisles clear.

Transportation may be provided for outings planned for the Day Program.

Note: Effective June 1, 2010 the Hancock County Transportation System will be providing Hancock County consumers transportation to and from the Center.

I. Emergency Closings

At times, emergencies such as severe weather, power failures, etc. can disrupt our program's operation or close it completely. The decision to close the program will be decided by the Executive Director based on the weather conditions. In the event of such closings, the local radio station will broadcast this information and/or housing staff will notify you of the closing.
